

Are there any regulations on the size of photovoltaic panels

Overview

The California Energy Commission (CEC) develops and updates these standards, and the most recent version took effect January 1, 2026, for any building whose permit application is submitted on or after that date. 1 The rules dictate how solar photovoltaic systems are sized. California's Title 24 solar mandate applies to most new construction, with rules on system sizing, battery storage, and what it costs to comply. You should also consider the age of your roof and how long until it will need. Solar, or photovoltaic (PV) panels as they're referred to in NFPA 1, Fire Code, are becoming more and more common on one- and two-family dwelling and townhouse roofs. The annual electrical output of the PV system shall be no less than the smaller of a PV system.

Are there any regulations on the size of photovoltaic panels

2022 Nonresidential Solar PV

The required solar PV size is calculated per Section 140.10. A building's energy demand is impacted by its climate zone, conditioned floor area (CFA), and space usage.
