

Electric vehicle infrastructure canberra

Overview

Canberra has the highest rate of EV ownership per capita in Australia. Canberra EV motorists can access over 250 individual charging bays across the ACT. The ACT Government will continue to support the expansion of Canberra's public Electric Vehicle charger network, with a new round of grants to deliver 39 more EV chargers in key locations across the city by 2025. Minister for Water, Energy and Emissions Reduction, Shane Rattenbury said the new. The ACT Government, serving as both State Government and Local Council for Canberra's 450,000 residents, has become Australia's leader in the transition of government fleet and private cars to zero-emission vehicles.
